MENINGITIS INFORMATION & VACCINATION WAIVER

Meningitis is an infection of the fluid of a person's spinal cord and the fluid that surrounds the brain. People sometimes refer to it as spinal meningitis. Meningitis is usually caused by a viral or bacterial infection. Knowing whether meningitis is caused by a virus or bacterium is important because the severity of illness and the treatment differ. Viral meningitis is generally less severe and resolves without specific treatment, while bacterial meningitis can be quite severe and may result in brain damage, hearing loss, learning disability, or death. For bacterial meningitis, it is also important to know which strain of bacteria is causing the meningitis because antibiotics can prevent some types from spreading and infecting other people. Neisseria meningitidis (also called meningococcal meningitis) is the leading cause of bacterial meningitis.

What are the signs and symptoms of meningitis?

Common Triad of symptoms: high fever, headache, and stiff neck. These symptoms can develop over several hours, or they may take 1 to 2 days. Other symptoms include nausea, vomiting, skin rash, discomfort looking into light, confusion, and sleepiness.

How is meningitis diagnosed?

Early diagnosis and treatment are very important. If symptoms occur, the patient should see a doctor immediately. The diagnosis is usually made in the laboratory from a sample of spinal fluid. The spinal fluid is obtained by performing a spinal tap, in which a needle is inserted into an area in the lower back where fluid in the spinal canal is readily accessible. Test results from the spinal fluid can identify if the cause is viral or bacterial and, if the latter, may help determine the selection of antibiotics most effective in treatment.

Can meningitis be treated?

Bacterial meningitis can be treated with a number of effective antibiotics. It is important, however, that treatment be started early in the course of the disease. Appropriate antibiotic treatment of most common types of bacterial meningitis should reduce the risk of dying from meningitis to below 15%, although the risk is higher among the elderly.

Is meningitis contagious?

Yes, bacterial meningitis is highly contagious. The bacteria are spread through the exchange of respiratory and throat secretions (i.e., coughing, kissing). Fortunately, none of the bacteria that cause meningitis are as contagious as things like the common cold or the flu, and they are not spread by casual contact or by simply breathing the air where a person with meningitis has been. However, sometimes the bacteria that cause meningitis have spread to other people who have had close or prolonged contact with a patient with meningitis. People in the same household or day-care center, or anyone sharing a bathroom or having direct contact with a patient's oral secretions (such as a boyfriend or girlfriend) would be considered at increased risk of acquiring the infection. People who qualify as close contacts of a person with meningitis caused by N. meningitidis should receive antibiotics immediately to prevent them from getting the disease.

Are there vaccines against meningitis?

Yes, there are vaccines that protect against some strains of N. meningitidis but there are no vaccines to protect against viral forms. The vaccine against N. meningitidis is sometimes used to control outbreaks of some types of meningococcal meningitis in the United States. Meningitis cases should be reported to state or local health departments to assure follow-up of close contacts and recognize outbreaks. The Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP) recommends that all people at risk should receive one dose of the conjugate vaccine (Menactra) whenever possible. This is particularly true for college students who are under the age of 25 and live in close quarters with others or someone who has had his/her spleen removed; these are two groups who have an increased risk of acquiring meningococcal infection relative to other persons their age.

To learn more about meningitis and the vaccine, please contact your physician or visit the CDC web site at www.cdc.gov and/or the FIU Student Health Services web site at: studenthealth.fiu.edu.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY:

I have read the information above pertaining to meningitis. I understand the risks involved and I decline to receive the meningitis vaccine.

MANDATORY IMMUNIZATION REQUIREMENTS

Immunization Policy:

As a prerequisite to registration, Florida International University requires all students to comply with the following immunization policy regulations from the Florida Board of Governors regarding measles, mumps, rubella, meningococcal meningitis and hepatitis B immunity.

1. Measles, Mumps, Rubella:

- All students born after December 31, 1956 must present documented proof of immunity to measles (rubeola) and German measles (Rubella), as described below:

Acceptable Proof of Immunity consists of:

- a. Proof of two (2) vaccinations (doses) of MMR (Measles/Mumps/Rubella) received on or after 12 months of age, taken at least 28 days apart, AND in 1968 or later
  - b. Proof of immunity by way of a positive blood test lab result (measles and rubella titer)
    - If titer results are negative, student will have to receive the full MMR vaccine series (2 doses) to boost immunity.
  - c. A written statement from a healthcare provider documenting a diagnosis of measles (rubeola). Must include date of diagnosis, and be signed by the healthcare provider on his/her official stationery. This is acceptable for measles only and does not apply to rubella.
- For information regarding medical exemptions or temporary deferments from this mandatory vaccine requirement, please visit studenthealth.fiu.edu and click on the "Registration Holds" link and then "Immunization FAQ."

2. Meningitis and Hepatitis B

- All students must present documented proof of vaccination/immunity to meningococcal meningitis and hepatitis B as described below.
NOTE: The meningococcal meningitis vaccine is NOT the same as the vaccine against Meningitis Serogroup B (i.e. Trumenba or Bexsero); therefore, proof of either of these incorrect vaccines is not sufficient to satisfy the immunization requirement.

Acceptable Proof of Immunity consists of:

- a. Proof of one dose of meningococcal meningitis vaccine and a total of three doses of hepatitis B vaccines
- b. Proof of immunity by way of a blood test lab result (applicable to hepatitis B only)

Exemptions:

Students declining to receive vaccination for Meningitis and/or Hepatitis B must accept a waiver of liability acknowledging that they have read information pertaining to the disease and despite knowledge of the risks have decided to waive receiving the vaccine. These waivers can be accepted and viewed on my.fiu.edu under the "Student Center" and "Student Health Portal" tabs.

NOTE: A parent or legal guardian must sign the waiver for any minor under the age of 18. Parents or legal guardians may contact Student Health Services or obtain the form by visiting studenthealth.fiu.edu.
